

SUMEC is a company dedicated to the distribution of cutting tools, equipment and related accessories, formed by a highly qualified and versatile team that bases its work on a constant vision of the needs of the market, maintaining exclusive agreements with leading brands of renown value.

CUTTING-EDGE TECHNOLOGY

Our priority is to provide added value to our customers through the distribution of highly technological products, supported by our represented brands' innovation and training.

CUSTOMER SUPPORT

Our team of technicians works together with our customers in the development of their projects, providing optimised solutions to their needs.

SERVICE

Sumec continuously improves its management and communication processes in a proactive manner to ensure compliance with stakeholders' agreements and the applicable requirements, while meeting the needs and expectations of our customers.

The management system is in accordance with ISO 9001:2015.

Management
13 January 2021